

Workshop: Letting the Grass Grow 8 March – Grantham, Lincolnshire

What is it about?

This is a workshop to facilitate learning, sharing and discussion about the drivers and practicalities of managing open spaces less intensively.

Tell me more...

When:

Thursday 8 March 2012 – 10am to 4pm

Who:

All green spaces managers of publically accessible land: parish, town, district, borough, city and county councils, charities, housing associations, community groups, land management companies etc.

Where:

The Woodland Trust, Grantham, NG31 6LL

How much:

£35 plus VAT – lunch included

Free to GSEM members but limited to 2 places.

Organised by:

GreenSpace East Midlands, in partnership with the Woodland Trust.

Ruth Rolls

Forum Manager

Caversham Court, Church Road,
Caversham, RG4 7AD
P: 01604 807 771
E: rrolls@green-space.org.uk
www.green-space.org.uk/eastmidlands

Booking is essential. To book your place on this workshop please use the booking form accompanying this flyer.

Olney Meadow Pocket Park, Silverstone, Northamptonshire is managed by local volunteers for wildlife and recreation.

Speakers confirmed:

- Mike Townsend, Communications & Evidence Adviser, The Woodland Trust interpreting the findings of The Woodland Trust's Trees or Turf report.
- Gareth Broome, Nottinghamshire County Council will share their experience of using different techniques suitable for the individual nature of varied sites.
- Ruth Rolls, GreenSpace East Midlands will look at the policy and other drivers for changing mowing regimes and land use.