Fight to keep skatepark

Campaigners are fighting to keep a skatepark in Stamford (East Midlands) after the existing ramps were torn down. Council officials ordered the removal of the ramps on the Recreational Ground because they were unsafe. Now Stamford Skatepark Committee wants to start raising the estimated £150,000 it would need to reopen the facility.

Possible Futures for Playwork: The Big Event, 20-21 June 2008, Nottingham

The Big Event is a platform for all those involved in playwork to come together and debate the opportunities and issues facing the sector. Through a series of interactive, creative and playful activities, the event aims to arrive at consensus on the priorities facing the field of playwork. The Big Event is the culmination of a six-month Play England project in partnership with SkillsActive, Play Wales, Play Scotland, PlayBoard Northern Ireland and the Joint National Committee for Training in Playwork.
